

Is your hosted online system secured?

Yes, definitely! Everything is encrypted that is why you are assured that your data and information are safe.

And if you decide to host the software on your own server, we can assist you in securing your date and information as well.